Ulalena

The power of this production is that it is both universal and intimate. Born from a mythology populated by beings larger than life representing a natural landscape alive with volcanoes, vast oceans and primeval rain forests. The story begins with the mythic creation of the Hawaiian Islands and rolls through successive waves of voyagers who have found their way these shores. From the first Polynesians to Capt Cook and finally to us. This is a unique and compelling story.

Rich costumes, lighting and stage design are woven together into a filigree of fantastic images drawn from Hawaiian legend and history, pulling the viewer out of time and into a place of wonder, experiencing with awe the spirit-filled landscape of the imagination of the ancient Hawaiian story tellers. Critics agree Ulalena is a feast for the senses and a must see!
